[He was a son of Bâhu and was called Sagara because he was born together with gara or poison given to his mother by the other wife of his father. By his wife Sumati he had 60000 sons. He successfully performed 99 sacrifices, but when he commenced the hundredth, his sacrificial horse was stolen by Indra and carried down to the Pâtala. Sagara thereupon commanded his 60000 sons to search it out. Finding no trace of the animal on earth they began to dig down towards the Pâtala, and in doing this they naturally increased the boundaries of the ocean which was therefore called Sâgara ; cf. R. 13. 3. Meeting with the sage Kapila they rashly accused him of having stolen their horse, as a punishment for which they were instantly reduced to ashes by that sage. It was after several thousands of years that Bhagîratha (q. v.) succeeded in bringing down to the Pâtala the celestial river Ganges to water and purify their ashes and thus to convey their souls to heaven].
